Philanthropic Gestures

Where students pool funds to acquire essential items for the less fortunate. During the COVID-19 pandemic, NSS volunteers have been actively participating in community service initiatives. Notably, the NSS unit actively engages in community initiatives in collaboration with various NGOs.

Impact: Encouraging students to pool funds and participate in community service cultivates a culture of empathy, generosity, and social responsibility among the student body.

Community service during Covid-19 (A.Y. 2020-21)

The COVID-19 pandemic posed numerous challenges, but the display of solidarity through volunteering was truly heartening. Our NSS unit took significant initiatives to raise awareness about community needs and foster enthusiasm for activism. During the lockdown, in collaboration with Manav Seva Sangh "Chhaydo", our NSS unit engaged in commendable community activities.

Our NSS volunteers and officers regularly visited the SMC Community Hall, Adajan Patiya, to prepare kits containing essentials like roti, vegetables, rice, and dal for the underprivileged and corona warriors, including police officers. Seven volunteers took the initiative to cook and distribute food packets in the slum areas surrounding college.

Additionally, our NSS volunteers and officers distributed homeopathic medicines and Ayurvedic Kava (an immunity-boosting drink) door-to-door. This effort aimed to ensure safety measures and raise awareness about COVID-19 among the poor and vulnerable populations.

Focused on Health & Wellbeing

The NSS unit actively promotes awareness programs for AIDS, polio, and malaria. During the COVID-19 pandemic, the college, in collaboration with the Surat Municipal Corporation, organized several vaccination drives.

Impact: Involvement in these initiatives empowers students, giving them practical experience in public health and community service, enhancing their sense of responsibility and leadership skills.

Vaccination Drive A.Y. 2021-22.

The Centres for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) has identified vaccination as a crucial tool in the fight against the COVID-19 pandemic. In support of this initiative, our college committed to achieving a 100% vaccination rate for students, faculty and community on campus throughout the A.Y. 2021-22. To reach this goal, the college, in collaboration with the Surat Municipal Corporation, organized several vaccination drives.

From August 17, 2021, to January 3, 2022, the college conducted a comprehensive vaccination drive in partnership with the Surat Municipal Committee. A total of 3,172 individuals benefited from this initiative. This number included 31 teaching staff, 89 non-teaching staff, 274 family members of students, 2,494 students, and 284 other individuals who received their vaccinations through this program.

Participation & leadership skills

NSS Volunteer at National Level:

Being an NSS (National Service Scheme) volunteer at the national level involves participation in various events and camps designed to foster youth development, adventure, and national integration. Here are details about three prominent national-level activities for NSS volunteers:

1. National Youth Festival

The National Youth Festival is an annual event organized by the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India, in collaboration with one of the State Governments. The festival aims to celebrate the spirit of youth and promote national integration.

Key Features:

- Cultural Exchange: Participants engage in various cultural activities such as dance, music, and art, representing their states and showcasing India's diverse heritage.
- Workshops and Seminars: Sessions on leadership, skill development, and youth empowerment are conducted.
- Competitions: Various competitions are held in sports, literature, and fine arts.
- Youth Awards: The festival also includes the presentation of National Youth Awards to individuals who have made significant contributions in various fields.

Objective: To encourage the development of youth potential and foster a sense of national unity and cultural harmony.

2. National Adventure Camp

The National Adventure Camp is organized to instill a spirit of adventure, leadership, and teamwork among NSS volunteers. These camps are typically held in scenic and challenging terrains.

Key Features:

- Adventure Activities: Participants engage in activities like trekking, rock climbing, river rafting, and camping.
- Skill Development: The camp focuses on building survival skills, resilience, and environmental awareness.
- Team Building: Various group activities are designed to enhance teamwork and leadership qualities.

Objective: To promote physical fitness, a sense of adventure, and a respect for nature and the environment among the youth.

3. The National Integration Camp (NIC)

The National Integration Camp aims to foster national unity and integration among the youth of different cultural and social backgrounds.

Key Features:

- Cultural Programs: Participants perform traditional dances, music, and plays from their regions, promoting cultural exchange.
- Discussion Forums: Sessions on national issues, social harmony, and communal unity.
- Community Service: Activities like cleanliness drives, tree planting, and educational outreach in local communities.
- Leadership Activities: Workshops and training on leadership, communication, and conflict resolution.

Objective: To cultivate a sense of unity, patriotism, and mutual understanding among the youth from diverse backgrounds.

Participation Benefits

- Exposure to Diverse Cultures: Interaction with peers from different states and backgrounds.
- Skill Development: Enhanced leadership, teamwork, and communication skills.
- Recognition and Awards: Opportunities for recognition at the national level.
- Personal Growth: Development of self-confidence, resilience, and a broader worldview.

Eligibility and Selection

Eligibility for these programs typically involves being an active NSS volunteer with a good track record of participation in NSS activities at the college or state level. Selection is often competitive and based on recommendations from NSS program officers and coordinators.

Participating in these national-level programs provides NSS volunteers with invaluable experiences that contribute to their personal and social development, fostering a stronger, more integrated nation.
